LINDBERGH SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL
St. Louis, Missouri
Volume XVI

Janis Finot, Editor
Mrs. Marilyn Ward, Adviser

I have had playmates, I have had companions,
In my days of childhood, in my joyful school-days;
All, all are gone, the old familiar faces.

I have been laughing, I have been carousing,
Drinking late, sitting late, with my bosom cronies;
All, all are gone, the old familiar faces.

I loved a Love once, fairest among women:
Closed are her doors on me, I must not see her,--
All, all are gone, the old familiar faces.

I have a friend, a kinder friend has no man,
Like an ingrate, I left my friend abruptly;
Left him, to muse on the old familiar faces.

Ghost-like I paced round the haunts of my childhood,
Earth seemed a desert I was bound to traverse,
Seeking to find the old familiar faces.

Friend of my bosom, thou more than a brother,
Why wert not thou born in my father's dwelling?
So might we talk of the old familiar faces.

How some they have died, and some they have left me,
And some are taken from me; all are departed;
All, all are gone, the old familiar faces.

Charles Lamb

1967 DEDICATEE MR. FRED DAHLBERG

Mr. Fred Dahlberg, chairman of the History Department at LHS, serves as an example of excellence in the teaching profession. One of his teaching associates states, "This, to Mr. Dahlberg, would be the highest compliment you could pay him." His energies and enthusiasm have been a source of inspiration, not just to his department, but to all who have come in contact with him.

Mr. Dahlberg is the coordinator-teacher in the team teaching program in American History and is also a World History teacher. He is largely responsible for planning and organizing the Advanced Placement Program at Lindbergh and has served on the committee to revise and evaluate the district's elementary social studies curriculum. As the Lindbergh representative to the Washington University Social Studies Curriculum Project, Mr. Dahlberg has given generously of his time and energy to set up a new social studies program. In recognition of his efforts and abilities he has been selected to implement the five year program in the Lindbergh District.

So, in the light of his outstanding contributions to further the education of students of LHS, we of the 1967 SPIRIT staff proudly dedicate this book to Mr. Fred Dahlberg.

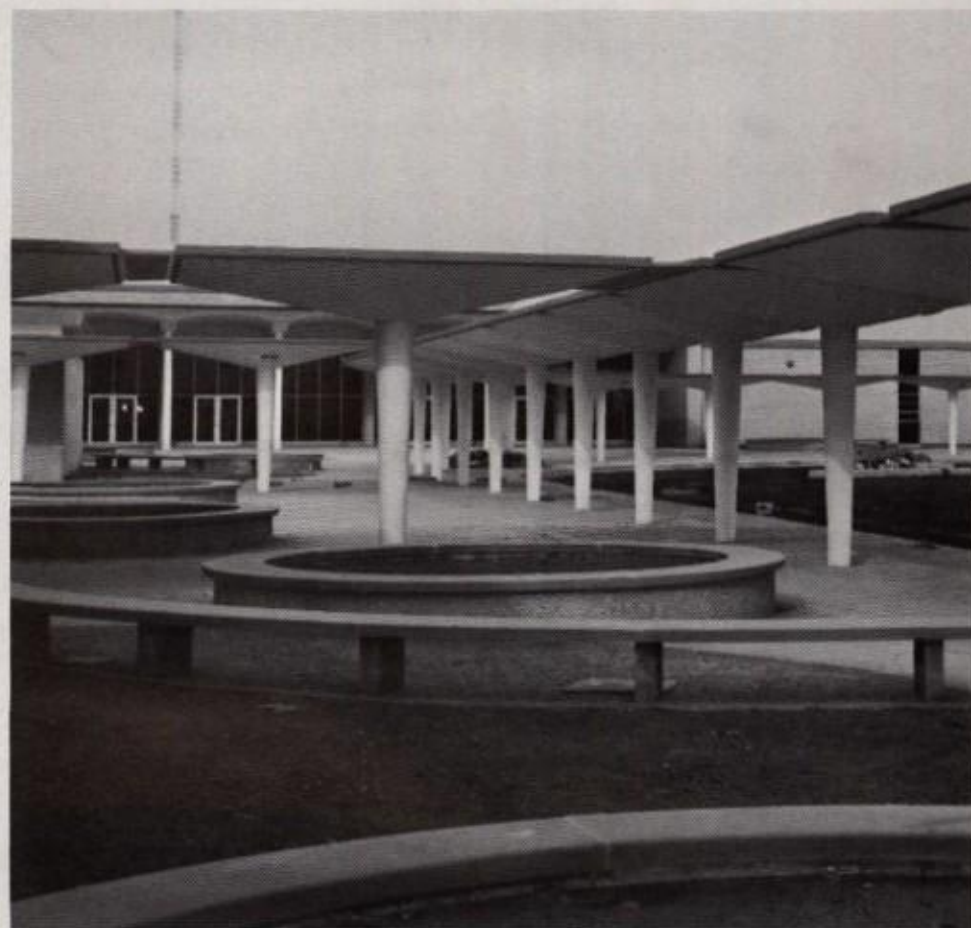

"He didn't tell me how to live; he lived and let me watch him do it." Clarence B. Kelland

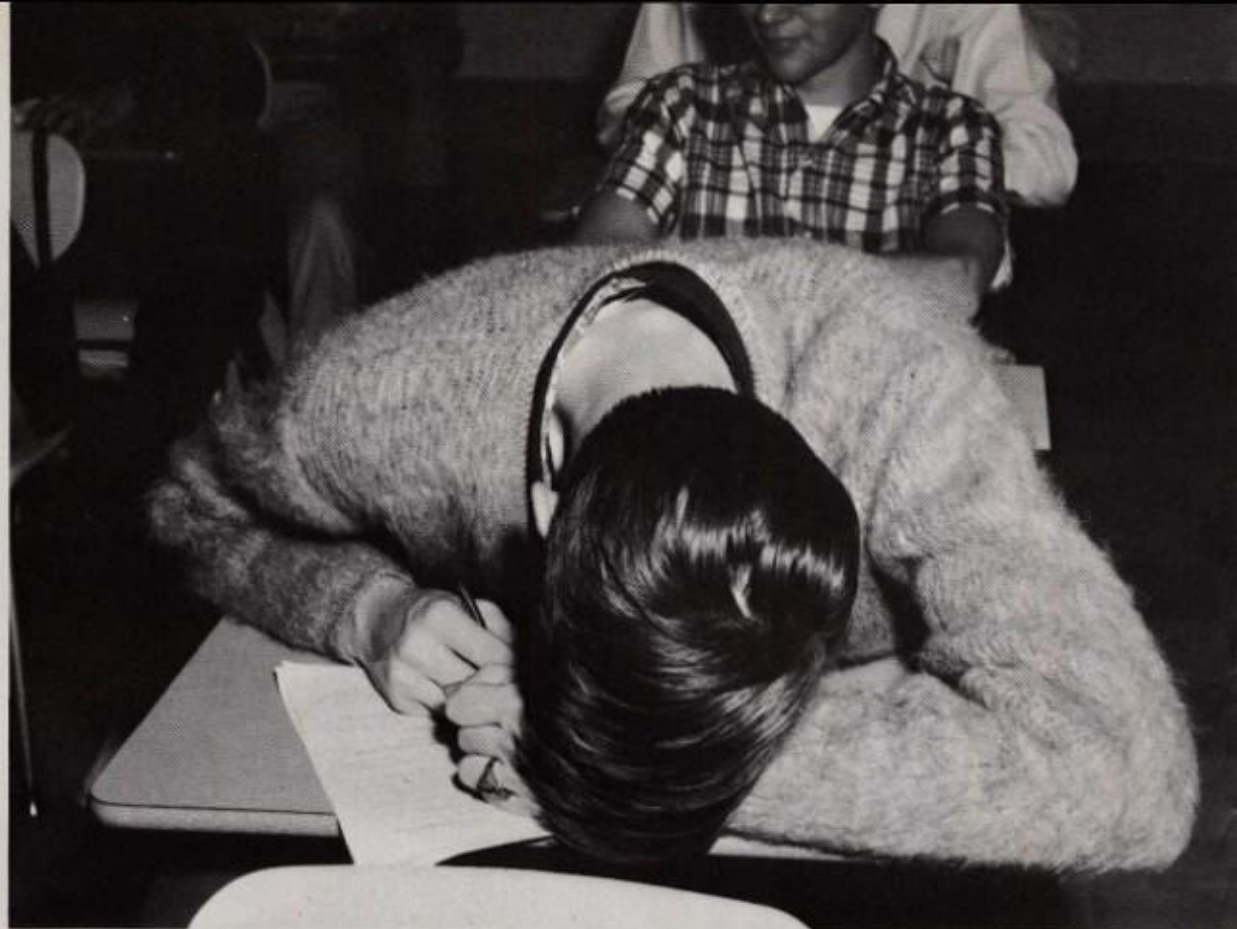

"A teacher affects eternity; he can never tell where his influence stops." Henry Brooks Adam

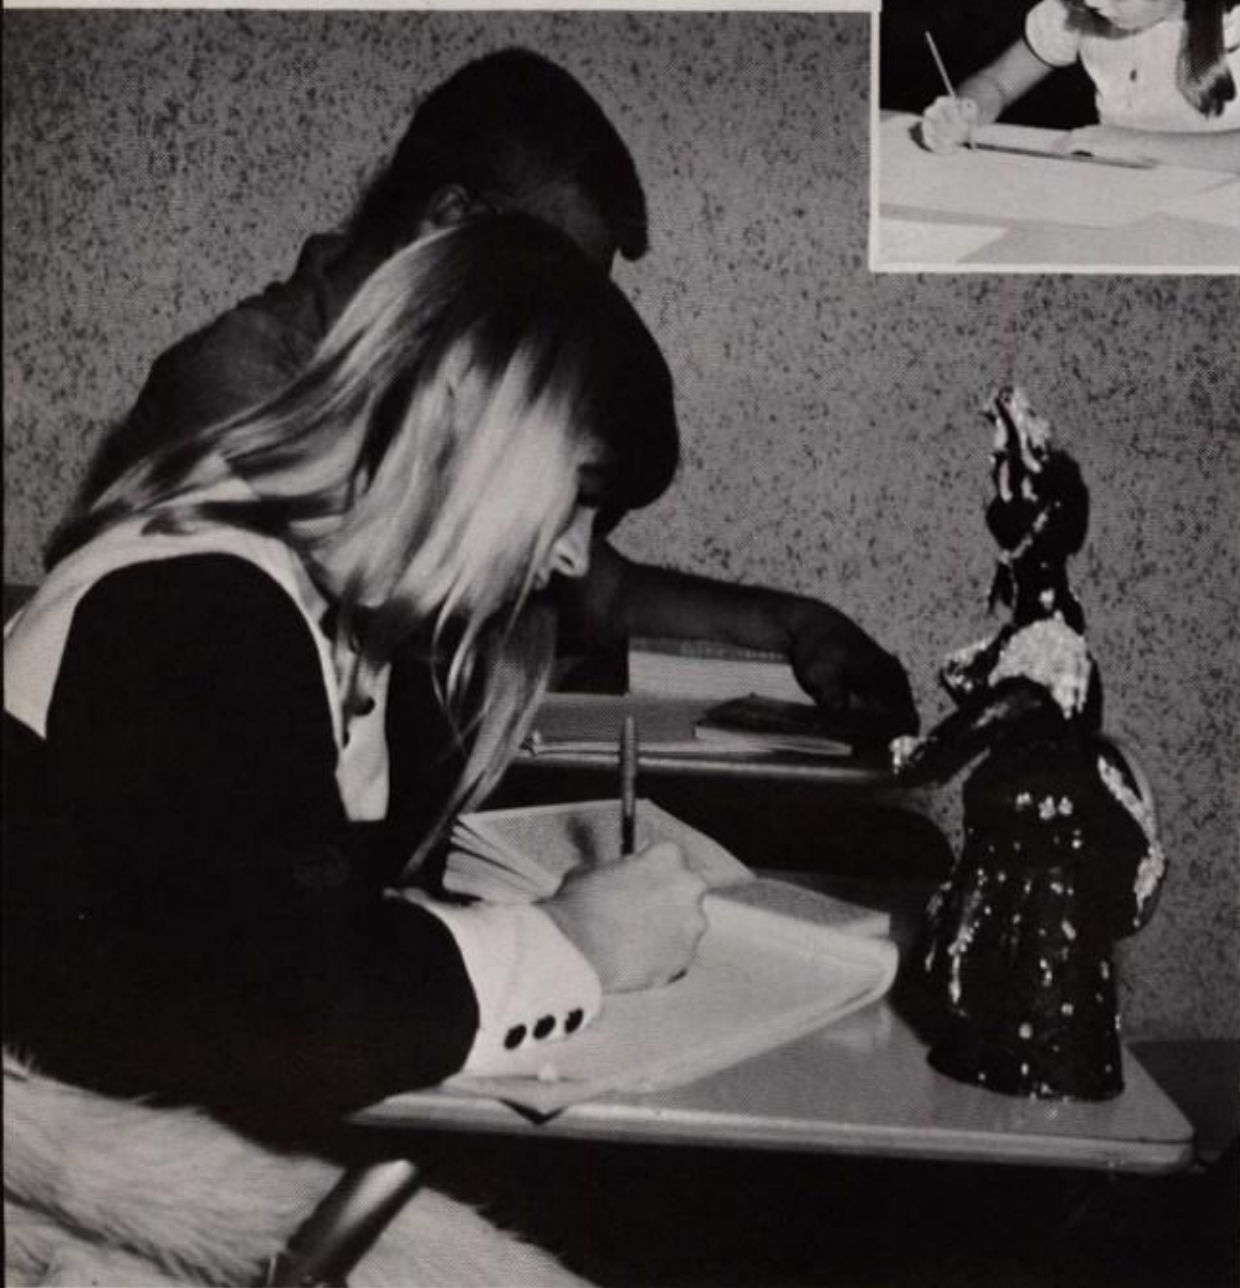

From afar . . .
It's just a clutter
of buildings--
Some old, some new . . .

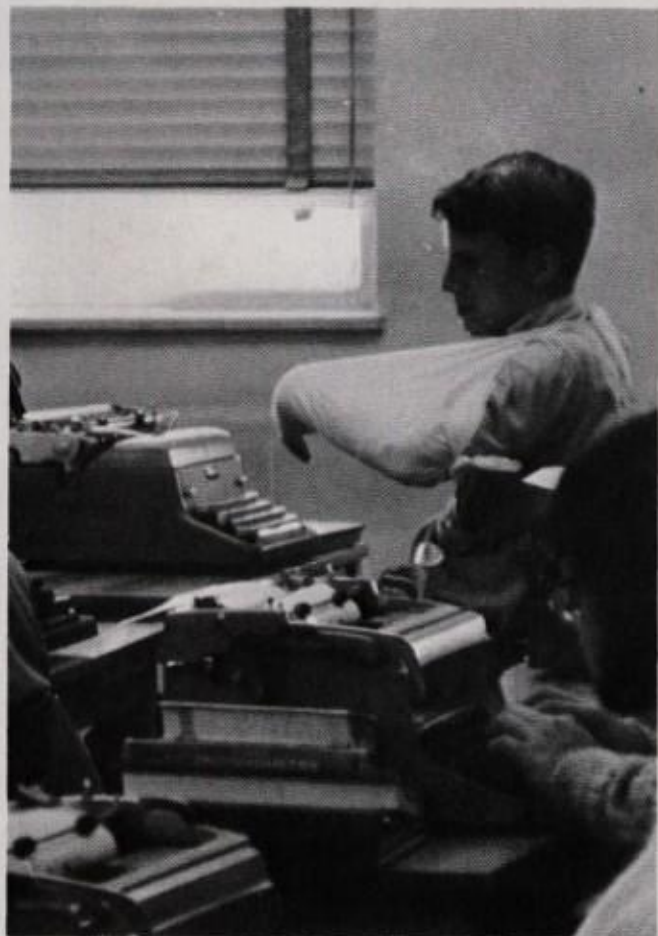

To close the gap of human understanding and probe the depths of physical knowledge.

" . . . Learning the precious value of just being oneself. To decide alone about the things that count and shake the world with these decisions and make the world a place for fun."

"Learning is a never ending process. It knows no time, no age, no special structure. It is part of life, and life is part of learning."

*“20’s

Youth's a kind of delirium, an avid pursuit of finer things.

Kids--they dig the world in their own special way.

"He who believes in nothing, still needs a girl to believe in him."

"Bliss it was in that dawn to be alive,
But to be young was very heaven!"

SPIRIT WEEK

Spirit Week, held from April 10 to April 14, was as usual a great success. The week got off to a fast start with the Continental Breakfast and the very popular Senior Appreciation Day. On this day all the underclassmen were expected to yield to any command made by the superior seniors. As the week progressed the traditional Color day, Dress-up day and Hootenanny were held. The whole week was climaxed on Friday night with the Spirit Week Carnival. This carnival was the hi-light of a wonderful week, which was a welcome change from the drudgery of common, ordinary school days.

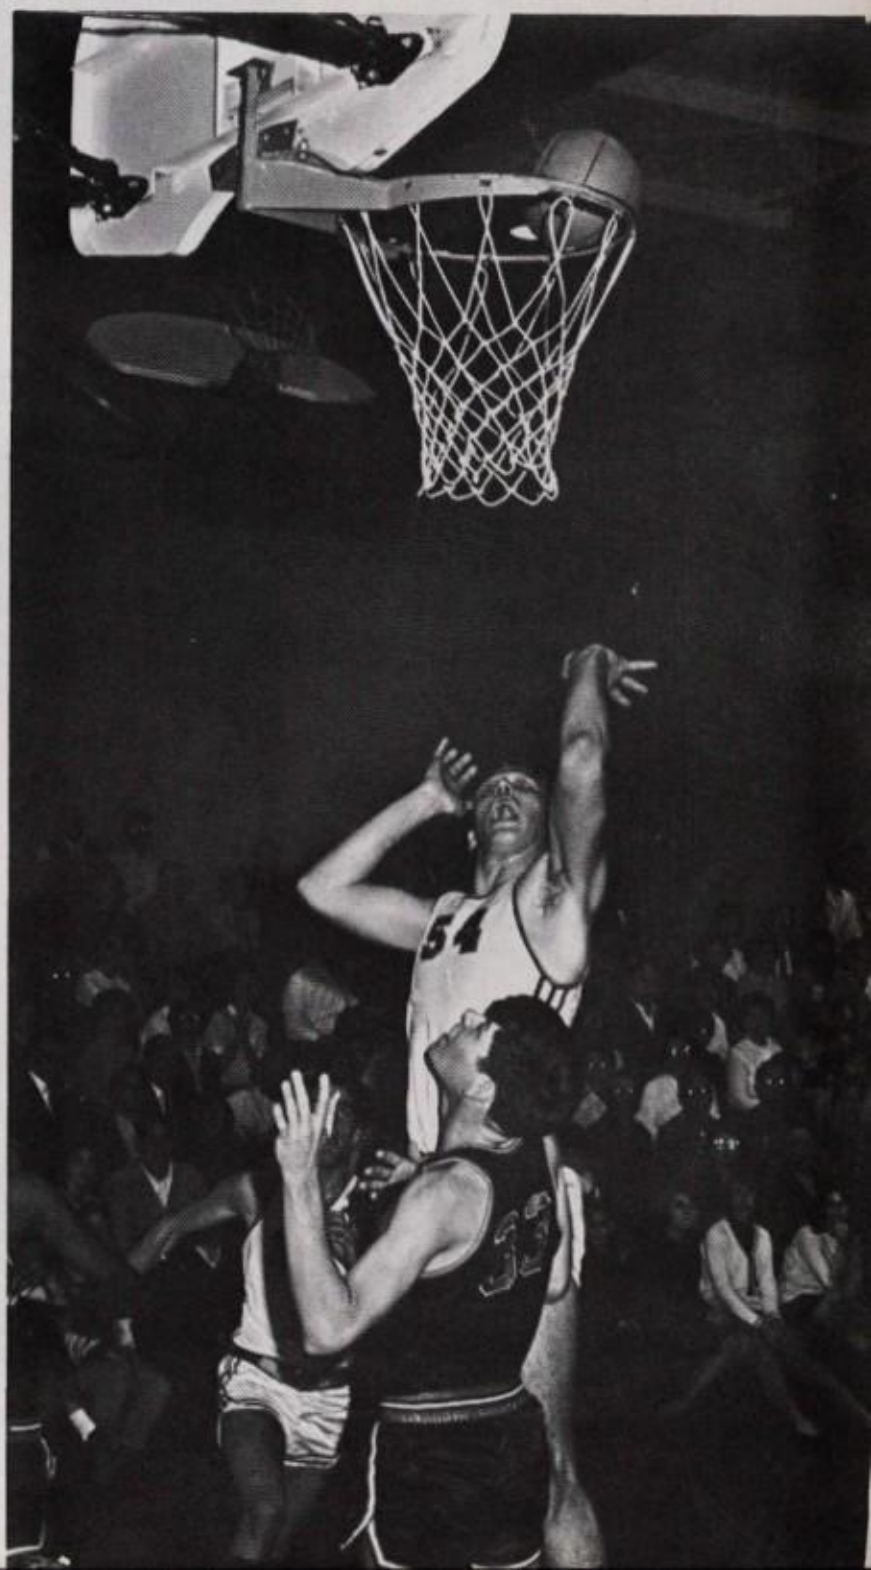

"The play's the thing to catch the conscience of all those involved: participants and spectators."

LHS'S EXCHANGE STUDENT "PIAK"

Suratthep Suvananmongkol, better known to Lindbergh students as Piak, came to Lindbergh in September from his home in Thailand. Although when he came he knew only a few people, he is leaving a deep impression in the hearts of all Lindbergh students who came in contact with him. While attending Lindbergh, Piak was very active in the student council and attended most school and social functions with Lindbergh students. Most students agree he has been a great asset to Lindbergh and is one of the best foreign exchange students Lindbergh has ever had.

ACADEMICS

There is a child and he says, "Teach me."
The wondering, curious, discovering child--awed at the Beauty, the rhythm, the process.
Teach me to know how and where is my world, and why am
I me, where do I end and all others begin? Teach me.

There is a youth and he says, "Teach me."
The reaching, unfolding, surging youth.
Teach me to understand what and why is the universe, what
Is my part of the joy and the toil,
How do I join with all other? Teach me.

There is a man and he says, "Teach me."
The seeking, searching, uncertain man.
Teach me to question, to probe, and to find.
Teach me so that when a child comes forth I will know what
To do when he says, "Teach me."

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Lindbergh High School Student Council is the organization of elected student body representatives who act in behalf of the students. They are responsible for chartering all clubs and aiding these organizations in any way possible. The Student Council, which plans and presents all assembly programs at Lindbergh, this year arranged assemblies featuring Earl Bucholz and a General Motors demonstration. The Council also was responsible for the Christmas assembly and the Color Day assembly. In addition, the Student Council sponsored the annual Snow Queen Dance, "Sleigh Ride."

PILOT STAFF

The Lindbergh High School newspaper, THE PILOT, is published each month by a group of students who devote much of their time and effort to its successful preparation and publication. Under the expert guidance of Mrs. Loie Riehl, the editors and reporters prepare the stories and plan the various sections. On Hamburger night, the copy is typed, headlines are written, and layouts are planned.

The Lindbergh Senior High School Masque hopes to encourage the creative talents of its members in the various fields of the Dramatic Arts. Through points obtained by participation in the various activities of the club, a member may become eligible to join the National Thespian Society.

ROW 1: P. Watkins, P. Kappel, M. Cole, E. Tripolitis, L. Siefert, K. Newberry, J. Nash. ROW 2: E. Gansner, P. Brotherton, P. Conrad, C. Roscoe, D. Walther, G. Kenner, C. Morgan, M. Vogt, C. Hoelscher.

This year, under the leadership of Miss Wood, Miss Jett, and Miss Gotting, the Masque presented the One-Act Plays, the Carnival Melodramas, and a Variety Show skit. They participated in speech interpretation.

QUILL AND SCROLL

The International Honorary Society for High School Journalists was organized for the purpose of encouraging and rewarding individual achievements in journalism and allied fields. Members are elected for their superior work in some phase of journalism, either writing, editing, business management, or production. This year, the members compiled their literary magazine, ACHIEVEMENT '67 and held their annual initiation ceremony in May.

DEBATE TEAM

The Debate Club provides students with an excellent experience in communicating by forcing two or more speakers with opposing ideas to defend their positions under direct challenge. This teaches the important principle that ideas must be backed by evidence rather than opinion. This year, under the direction of Mr. Horsley, the varsity team took seventh place in the tournament sponsored by the Greater St. Louis Speech Association with a record of 11 wins, 9 losses. They also competed in the Bellarmine Tournament at St. Louis University High School and the Belleville and Ladue/Invitationals. The Junior Varsity Team had a record of 12 wins, 7 losses in the district.

SEATED: O. Bates, M. Dickhaus, M. Comens, J. McGiverin, P. Clover, C. Harter. STANDING: Mrs. Lilley, sponsor; D. Hawkins, R. Shepherd, president; J. Cook, D. Kawanishi, J. Shawcross.

CHESS CLUB

The 1966-67 Lindbergh Senior High School Chess Club, under the sponsorship of Mrs. Lilley, has, over the past year, finally made its mark at Lindbergh. Primarily organized to provide both a location and an atmosphere conducive to competitive high school chess playing, the club is open to all sophomore, junior, and senior students interested in learning the beginning aspects of the game or cultivating previously acquired knowledge of chess. Next year, the club hopes to expand from an intramural competitive base to an inter-school one, possible involving other clubs.

A CAPPELLA CHOIR

The A Cappella Choir, under the direction of Mr. Reep, provides an excellent opportunity for talented young people to sing in a school sponsored group. Individual solos and small ensembles have a chance to perform. By investigating all periods of music, students may further their interest in music and singing. This year the choir performed at several assemblies at LHS--the Christmas assembly, Honor Society assembly, and Honors Day Assembly. They also participated in the annual Music Festival at Washington University where individual solos and ensembles were judged. In May, Lindbergh held its first annual vocal festival with 690 students from grades 6-12 participating.

CONCERT BAND

The Lindbergh High School Concert Band, under the direction of Mr. Brunner, helps its members acquire a better appreciation of classical and contemporary music written as orchestral transcription, or original compositions for the symphonic band. Their annual activities this year included winter and spring band concerts, participation in the music festival at Washington University, performance at football and basketball games and at graduation. They also competed with other schools at a band festival. On April 30 they performed at the dedication of the city hall in Fenton, and on May 17 at Park School. These as well as other performances at the Christmas assembly, PTA programs, and pep assemblies made it a busy year for the concert Band.

STAGE BAND

The Stage Band enables members of the Concert Band to explore the fields of jazz in a stage band setting. Current trends as well as traditional jazz numbers give the group freedom to express themselves through improvisation. This year the Stage Band, with Mr. Tobler as director, performed at band concerts in connection with the Concert Band as well as PTA programs, church programs, and the Variety Show.

OFFICE AIDES

Each year a group of students volunteer to relinquish their study hall time so that they may work for the office. This year, under the guidance of Mr. Albers, they did an excellent job running errands for the office, library, and guidance office, collecting second and sixth hour absentee forms, and helping the secretaries in any way possible.

PEP CLUB

The Lindbergh Senior High Pep Club, with Mrs. Laneman as its sponsor, strives to unite the student body and create school spirit among the students. This year they presented the annual Sports Queen Dance, "Discotheque Charles." Their other activities included the balloon release at the last football game and the Pie Eating Contest at the Spirit Week Carnival.

SYNCHRONIZED SWIM CLUB

The Synchronized Swim Club is an organization of girls interested in devoting a portion of their free time to learning and performing water ballet. Tryouts were held in April and a group of approximately 20 girls was selected. Miss DePorter worked with the girls to help them plan and perfect a synchronized swimming demonstration for the annual PTA open house held in May.

ATHLETICS

Yet the benefits of better life brought by knowledge and mental development can never be enjoyed to the fullest when one has no life, no energy; And the healthful habits as encouraged by high school athletic programs should carry into adulthood the key to complete exuberant enjoyment of better living . . .

CLASSES

Hold fast the time! Guard it, watch over it, every hour, every minute! Unregarded, it slips away, like a lizard, smooth, slippery, faithless, a pixy-wife. Hold every minute sacred. Give each clarity and meaning, each the weight of thine awareness, each in its true and due fulfillment.

Thomas Mann
